Award ceremony of the IV edition of the 2017-2018 Focus photography contest

12 / 07 / 2018. José Antonio Fernández Gallar, OHL's CEO, has been present in the award ceremony of the IV edition of the 2017-2018 Focus contest, held on July 12th in Torrespacio, OHL headquarters in Madrid.

The contest, promoted by the Communication and Image Management, awarded a total of 14 photographs selected among the over 300 candidates presented in two categories: Concessions, Engineering and Construction and Development and Innovation and Sustainability.

Gonzalo Targhetta, Chief Organization and Corporate Resources Officer, gave the awards to the winners. During his intervention, he congratulated all the winners and thanked them for their interest and enthusiasm. In addition, he commented that this contest "has served to do a photographic tour of the company's principal projects in countries such as Czech Republic, Canada, Norway, Mexico, Saudi Arabia and Spain".
